

A train, a song . . .

A Legend.

CASEY JONES & HOME

RAILROAD MUSEUM

C E L E B R A T I N G

731.668.1222

Casey Jones Village

Highway 45 Bypass at I-40 Exit 80-A

Jackson, Tennessee

www.caseyjones.com

CASEY JONES VILLAGE

J a c k s o n , T e n n e s s e e

*Proud to be one of Tennessee's
Top 10 Travel Attractions*

731.668.1222

www.caseyjones.com

Museum Tours

Climb Aboard #382

Discover America's Railroad Legend

Open Daily

- ❖ Award winning Brooks Shaw's Old Country Store Restaurant with charming Gift Shoppe and 1890's Ice Cream Parlor & Fudge Shoppe. Voted Jackson's Best Restaurant 2005 and 2006
- ❖ The Old Country Store "To Go" Takeout & Neighborhood Market
- ❖ The Casey Jones Train Store with Casey Jones and railroad themed gifts and Thomas & Friends
- ❖ The Casey Jones Village Amphitheatre
- ❖ The Shoppes at Casey Jones Village
- ❖ Wildlife in Wood Studio
- ❖ The Tourism Association of Southwest Tennessee Information Center
- ❖ Located nearly halfway between Memphis & Nashville off Interstate 40 Exit 80 A on the Hwy 45 Bypass. Take a right at the first light onto Casey Jones Lane.

THE LEGEND OF CASEY JONES

Unlike many other legendary characters in American history, such as Pecos Bill or Paul Bunyan, the story of Casey Jones is a true one. The life and legend of Casey Jones and how it all came about is most fascinating and one in which we should all be proud, for it is not only the story of one man's death, but his dedication to duty that is representative of a people and nation whose adventurous spirit helped mold the America we know today.